OUR NEW BATTLE

The overturn of Roe v. Wade did not put an end to abortion. It simply changed how women are seeking them. Women are traveling into North Carolina for legal abortions and ordering abortion pills online. In addition to this, the FDA's relabel of the abortion pill enables retail pharmacies, like CVS and Walgreens, to dispense abortion pills in their stores. Furthermore, the U.S. Postal Service recently stated they can legally deliver abortion pills to any state in the country regardless of local abortion laws. This is the new face of abortion.

These decisions have changed the look of our battlefield and created new obstacles, but they come as no surprise to our God. We will remember who goes before us in battle, while keeping our eyes focused on our mission to reach each family where they are in their time of desperation and need. It is by your love, prayers, and partnership that this is possible.
